

BIOGRAPHY

Paul J. Treat

Army Senior Fellow
Deputy Under Secretary of The Army

Mr. Paul J. Treat is a charter member of the Army Senior Fellows Program, an initiative of the Deputy Under Secretary of the Army, to develop a pool of high potential Army Civilians that have potential to be selected to serve as Army Senior Executives.

Prior to his current assignment, Paul was Chief of the Strategic Planning and Lean Six Sigma Office at U.S. Army White Sands Missile Range in New Mexico. From 1994-2005, Mr. Treat was an instrumentation development engineer at White Sands specializing in optical tracking systems. From 1990-1994 Mr. Treat was an engineer with the Department of Energy New Production Reactor program.

Mr. Treat is an Army Acquisition Corp member in Level III Systems Planning, Research, and Development Engineering. He earned a Master of Science degree from North Carolina State University in Materials Science and Engineering with a minor in mathematics. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering from New Mexico State University. Mr. Treat has received numerous civilian awards and the Commander's Award for Civilian Service.

Mr. Treat and his wife Kristine reside in Alexandria, Virginia.